

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

EDI Industry Veteran Joins Loren Data Corp.

Marina del Rey, CA – June 17, 2019 – Loren Data Corp. (LD.com) today announced the appointment of Anthony (Tony) D’Angelo as Senior Vice President – Corporate Development.

Mr. D’Angelo joins Loren Data with over 30 years of EDI, eCatalog and Network services experience across numerous supply chain verticals including retail, automotive and high-tech. Most recently, he was VP of Business Development for TIE Kinetix NV (AMS:TIE). He previously was with InterTrade Systems, a division of Mediagrif (TSX:MDF), as Vice President of Sales & Marketing, and was a founding member and Senior Vice President at Internet Commerce Corporation/Easylink Services, now OpenText (NASDAQ:OTEX).

“Tony has a long and impressive track record in the EDI industry as an evangelist and thought leader,” said Loren Data’s Founder and CEO, Todd Gould. “We look forward to working with Tony in building upon our blue-chip customer base and strong technology platforms: ECGrid®, Hubbub<sup>SM</sup> and ECGridOS<sup>SM</sup>.”

“I am proud to be joining Todd and the team at Loren Data,” said Mr. D’Angelo. “Todd is a well-known expert, leader and mentor in the EDI world. He and his team operate the fastest, most full-featured Tier-1 EDI network in the industry, that is still the only Web Services API platform for EDI today.”

D’Angelo currently sits on various industry boards, including the New England Electronic Commerce Users’ Group (NEECOM) and the ASC X12 B2X Committee. He is a highly sought-after speaker/trainer for industry conferences such as RVCF, GS1, and AASA.
